FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JUNIOR WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION PRESENTS
2nd ANNUAL CORNHOLE FOR A CAUSE

Greenville, N.C. - On Saturday, October 12, the Junior Women's Association of Greenville (JWA) and Coastal Beverage Company, Inc., present the second annual Cornhole for a Cause Tournament. The double elimination style tournament will be held at Five Points Plaza in Uptown Greenville. Team check in will begin at noon, and games will begin at 1:00 pm. Live music will be provided by Those Meddling Kids. Food and beverages will be available for purchase.

Early team registration, prior to October 4, is $60 for a team of 2 players. Teams can register by visiting the JWA website or by picking up a registration form at Peasant's Pub or the Hilton Greenville. Registration on the day of the event will be $65 per team. All Cornhole for a Cause proceeds will benefit five local non-profit organizations including: the Boys and Girls Clubs of Pitt County, Habitat for Humanity of Pitt County, the Food Bank of Central & Eastern North Carolina, RHA Howell and Literacy Volunteers Pitt County.

"Our inaugural year was a huge success! JWA looks forward to making the 2nd Annual Cornhole for a Cause even more successful. We have wonderful sponsors and know that this year's event will be the best yet," said JWA Vice President of Finance, Barbara Borklund.
